I Listening and Speaking (oral) [No. of Responses : 3]

Read out the following conversation between Rani and Anu. Make them listen carefully and then ask the following questions.

Two geese and a tortoise live in a small lake. They were very good friends. Every day they would sit under the trees to take rest. They play together. One day, the lake began to dry up. It had not rained weeks. The tortoise and the geese were afraid of their future. The geese had an idea. They said to the tortoise, “Why don’t we find ourselves a new home? There is a big and beautiful lake on the other side of hills. It is so big that it will never dry up.” The tortoise was excited, “Is this really true?” he asked. “Of course, it’s true”, the geese answered. “But I can’t fly”, said the tortoise sadly.

1. Why were the tortoise and the geese worry?
