- * Time table for Composite Telugu / Sanskrit / Urdu should be adjusted by the headmaster
- * Syllabus for the revision tests is given in the annexure
- * Every Revision Test will be for 40 marks (Hindi for 80 marks) as in SSC Public Examination model.
- * On Pre Public examination days; 9.00 to 10.00 is Study and 10.10 to 12.55 is Examination
- * Along every Telugu Revision Test, there should be Comp. Tel. questions (wherever applicable)
- * Question papers for all the tests shall be provided by the District Common Examination Board.
- * Teachers should value the answer scripts on same day of exam and issue marks to students by evening
- * Subject teacher should analyse studentwise and question wise performance in each revision test and give suggestions to students.
- * Every student should be made to revise the question paper and learn the unattempted questions again so as to ensure the 100% pass.
- * Syllabus for the Pre-Public is same as in the Public Examinations
